ABOUT CASSIDY

Cassidy stepped into her first dance studio at the tender age of three. She has had a love for dance her entire life. At the age 13, Cassidy joined a competitive dance team and fell in love with the stage as well as performing. She won numerous awards for her jazz, lyrical, and hip hop dances in her home state of Arkansas, as well as Mississippi and Tennessee. At the age of 16, she opened her on dance studio in her small home town. Cassidy's husband is currently stationed at Twentynine Palms, and she is enlightened to be able to share her love of dance once again.
